	The chief agent of the Ahobila Matha states that the local authorities are desirous of formal reception when Swamy with Purnakumba on his entry into the town. It is stated generally that the practice is to have the Swami met either at Koppal or Pachimavahini by the temple servants with Purnakumba and invite him to visit the temple. A record of such an invitation is to be found in connection with the visit of Parakala swamy

In the case of Sri Srinivasachary the Amal examined shows that the Swamy was met with Puma Kumba on the road opposite to the Travellers Bungalow.

As regards the visit of the Uttaradi, Vyasaraya and Vidya Mathas there is no mention of Puma Kumba having been sent, I do not know if the question was definitely raised and the Commandeered. The Adhoka Matha agent-himself states that in the case of Vidya Matha that it was refused as it was not included in the statement of Observances Communicated to the Local authorities. In a D.O Communication to the Mysore Supt. the D.C. commr. requests that the matter may be settled and the decision Communicated to the Local authorities.

Admittedly there is no detailed record of previous Observance relating to the Adhoka Matha's visit to Seringapatam. At Melkote it is definitely fixed that Puma Kumba must be taken and offered at the place of reception and neither in this case in the place where it should meet the incoming Mahathipathi is there any difference between this Matha and Pankala Matha. I understand that in receptions at Myuru Srimad Purna Kumbha from Krishnapura temple is sent out to meet the Mathadipathi entitled to a public reception.

In the absence of any specific precedent it appears to me that the presentation of Purna Kumbha is only a mark of courtesy to a distinguished visitor though the distance to which it is sent to meet him may vary according to the position of the visitor. This gradation is maintained as regards the place where the Sri Satari is taken to meet: In the case of Shirlai Matha the Sri-Satari is taken up to the front gate while in the case of Parakala Swami it is taken a few yards further on i.e up to the Karangi bank. In the case of the latter Matha Purna Kumbha is actually taken to the place at

The Swamiyar also stops for Puja in all the Koppala matha or at Rajaswaminathaswami and the Swami is invited to visit the temple.

In the case of the above matter it will please me best if the Puna Kumbha meets him near the Mount Calvary, or at the turn of the Calvary road opposite the temple.

The Swamiyar of the above matter is invited. 6.3.14

But the question was not raised in his case. It is not an extraordinary matter to show this Courtesy in Srirangapatam when it is due in Melkote. The thing may be allowed to the extent indicated, but submit to Govt & if approved issue orders by wire.
